Books are a way of letting out your feelings in some type but not just that they are a way to let your imagination run free. In some books you can explain about your life or what you have been through.

Books attract you because when you're reading and you have to stop your like I just want to read more! It helps you understand other people's experiences and how different their life and imagination are to yours.

Photo albums are special because they can remind you of when you and loads of other people were younger or what they have been through in their life.

Genre is a certain style or category e.g music, art and even literature.

What is the book about?

Fireweed is a book about two young people, Bill and Julie, who are living in the time of a war. Bill was first off evacuated but he set off on his own 'adventure' and he met Julie. One day Bill goes to work while Julie stays in her aunt's old house with the toddler they have ended up looking after and an incident occurs.

Who would you recommend this book to? Why?

I would recommend this book to people who are not as emotional because in some parts of this book it does get quite heartbreaking.

Rating: 5/5

Can you write 3 facts you have learnt from this book?

1. I have learnt that people in the war time had to be evacuated to places much safer, such as the countryside.
2. I have learnt that if you were an adult you didn't really have a choice but to look after an evacuee.
3. I have learnt that some people have to leave their families and sacrifice their life for their country.

QUESTIONS

1. I like books based on the war and books that have a true meaning to them so I would like to own ones like that.
2. I feel like books about refugees and other people who have been taken away from their families are what help me the most because they let me know what other people especially now have been through.
3. I would give a family member a fictional book because I feel like they would just spend every minute sitting there and reading it.
4. We should treat books carefully because people have put their time and effort into writing and designing those books just for our enjoyment.
5. If I wrote a book it would be about animals because I feel like I know alot about animals and they are very special to me.
6. I would be over the moon if a book that i wrote was printed because I would know that someone out there had enjoyed reading or listening to someone read my book.
